However, when intending to bring guests or to send guests unaccompanied, Fellows are asked to give the Secretary's office at least one full day's advance notice of the names of such guests.

Official representatives of Companies in Association with the Society may also attend, with one guest.

'EYE FOR INDUSTRY' EXHIBITION

On Tuesday 25th November Mr John Butcher, MP, Parliamentary Under-Secretary of State for Industry, will open, at the Victoria and Albert Museum, an exhibition organized for Industry Year by the Society in association with the Museum (and with financial assistance from the Department of Trade and Industry and the Royal Commission for the Exhibition of 1851), under the title '"Eye for Industry": Royal Designers for Industry 1936-86'. Further details of this exhibition are given on p.832 of this issue, which also contains, as a loose insert, an offer to Fellows to purchase the companion volume to the exhibition at a specially reduced price.

FILM EVENING

The first Film Evening of the Session will be held at the Society's House on Thursday 27th November at 6.30 p.m. The following films will be shown:

Waddesdon
With Safety in Mind
Men of Letters
The Woodworker

Waddesdon (30 minutes, colour) is one of a series of films entitled 'A Place in the Country' made for the National Trust, each telling the story of a different country house in its care. At Waddesdon, near Aylesbury, a great mansion and elaborately landscaped pleasure grounds were created on a windswept hill-top for Baron Ferdinand de Rothschild between 1874 and 1889.

With Safety in Mind (30 minutes; colour), a CEGB film written, directed and presented by Peter Fairley, was shot mainly on location at Oldbury-upon-Severn, Trawsfynydd, Wylfa, Heysham and Sizewell nuclear power stations, at Barnwood in Gloucestershire and Sellafield in Cumbria. Its purpose is to show the emphasis placed on safety in the design, construction and operation of nuclear power stations, in the handling of radio-active waste and in the monitoring of the local environment.

Men of Letters (21 minutes; colour) commemorates 350 years of the world's first public postal service. By interposing dramatized scenes from the early days of the Royal Mail with present-day technology the film illustrates the changes that have taken place in the service. It was made for the Post Office.

The Woodworker (10 minutes; colour) is one of a series made for Shell under the general title 'I Could Do That' which illustrates diverse jobs having their roots in early hobbies, and which, on development, have provided satisfying careers for young people.

Tickets of admission are not required and Fellows may each bring up to two guests. Light refreshments will be served before the performance in the Benjamin Franklin Room from 5.45 p.m.

CENTENARY OF QUEEN VICTORIA'S GOLDEN JUBILEE

The Society's History Study Group will be holding a symposium from 9.45 to 3.30 p.m. on Friday 16th January 1986 to commemorate the Golden Jubilee of Queen Victoria. Details will be published in a later issue of the Journal. Admission will be by programme, obtainable from Dr D. G. C. Allan at the Society's House.

CLEANING OF THE BARRY PAINTINGS AND NEW LIGHTING IN THE GREAT ROOM

The Annual General Meeting on 24th September provided the first opportunity for Fellows to see the results of the work carried out during the past summer on cleaning the west wall of James Barry's paintings in the Great Room, and the new lighting which has been installed. The Society wishes to express its sincere gratitude to Mr Ronald Gerard for his generosity not only in paying for the cleaning of Crowning the Victors at Olympia (north wall) in the summer of 1985 but also for his substantial contribution to the improved lighting of the Great Room, installed this summer. (See also p. 778 of this issue.)

The Society is also indebted to Mr R. J. Moseley and Mr C. E. R. Clarabut for their generous contributions to the continuation of the restoration programme this year.

There remains one more painting, Elysium, or The State of Final Retribution (on the south wall), last in the sequence, to be cleaned next summer, subject to available finance. The Secretary would be please to hear from any Fellow who would like to help meet the costs, which will be in the region of £9,000.

INTRODUCTORY TALK ON THE BARRY PAINTINGS

At 1.15 p.m. on Wednesday 10th December the Curator-Historian, Dr D. G. C. Allan, will give a talk on James Barry's paintings in the Society's Great Room. This has been especially arranged for persons unfamiliar with Barry's cycle. Those attending may wish to purchase a printed abridgement of the artist's own account of his work. This is available either in the entrance hall or the Library at 10p per copy. All Fellows and interested visitors are welcome to attend.

MALTWOOD FUND FOR ARCHAEOLOGICAL RESEARCH IN SOMERSET

The Council invites applications from representatives of University Departments and other qualified organizations and scholars for grants in aid of archaeological and antiquarian research to be carried out in the county of Somerset (as formerly constituted) during the year 1987.

A sum of £5,000 will be available for distribution from moneys bequeathed to the Society by the late Mrs K. E. Maltwood, a Fellow. It will be allocated by the Society's Council on the advice of an expert Committee representative also of the Society of Antiquaries of London, the British Association for the Advancement of Science and the Somerset Archaeological and Natural History Society.

Applications should include the following information:

1. A description of the scheme in contemplation, and, in the case of schemes already in hand, an appreciation of the progress so far achieved.
2. An assessment of the archaeological or antiquarian importance of the scheme, in relation to other projects of a like nature.
3. Sufficient details of the organization responsible for or sponsoring the work to satisfy the Committee that it will be efficiently conducted and that the results will be published.
4. An estimate, however approximate, of the probable cost of the work to be carried out in 1987, and an indication of the funds likely to be available from other sources. These sources should be stated, because the Society is unwilling to use the money available in ways which might have the effect of reducing the burden which would otherwise rightly fall on public funds.

Applications need not be limited to projects of excavation or archaeological sites. Proposals for research by means of field study not involving excavation, or for the investigation or publication of material already available in museums, libraries, record offices and the like will also be considered.

Applications should be submitted by 31st January 1987 and addressed to J. S. Skidmore, at the Society's House.

DESIGN BURSARIES TRAVELLING EXHIBITION

A selection of winning and commended work submitted for the 1985-6 Design Bursaries Competition will be on display at Salford College of Art and Technology, Frederick Road, Salford (telephone, 061-736 6541), from 1st to 12th December, on weekdays except Saturdays.

SOIRÉE

The Annual Soirée of the Society was held on 1st October. Fellows and guests were received by Sir Peter Baldwin, Chairman of Council, and Mr Peter Andry, Chairman of the Music Committee, who subsequently in the Great Room presented certificates to the winners of this year's scholarships for advanced studies in singing and string-playing. The money (£17,000 in all) will be used for studies with teachers in Europe and North America. Details of the awards were given in the Journal for May 1986.

This year's recital was given by the Hungarian-born pianist András Schiff, the Society's guest-of-honour, who played Bach's Partita in C Minor and the Four Pieces Op. 118 by Brahms, and was then joined at the keyboard by George Malcolm (under whom Mr Schiff studied) for a performance of the Sonata in F Major, K. 497, by Mozart. The Society is very grateful to these distinguished musicians for generously supporting the Music Scholarships in this way, and also to the sponsors who continue to fund the awards.

SESSIONAL ARRANGEMENTS

A list of the Society's meetings as so far arranged for the ensuing Session is included as a supplement to this Journal.

CHRISTMAS CARDS

Order forms for the Society's Christmas cards are again included at the back of this issue of the Journal. Fellows wishing to place orders are particularly asked to use the separate order forms provided according to their choice of card; and if they wish to order both cards, to complete both forms. The money required should be sent at the same time.

NEW LIST OF MEMBERS

A revised list of members, corrected to 14th July 1986, has just been printed and is available, to Members only, at a cost of £3.50 including postage.

The new edition, the first since 1981, has been produced direct from the Society's computerized membership records. It runs to 172 pages, and contains a geographical as well as an alphabetical list of Fellows, together with Associates, Institutions in Union, Companies in Association, Honorary Corresponding Members, Regional Centres, Overseas Chapters and recipients of the Society's premier medals.

PAYMENT OF SUBSCRIPTIONS UNDER DEED OF COVENANT

A form for the use of those members who wish to pay their annual subscriptions under deed of covenant (which brings considerable additional benefit to the Society) is included at the back of this issue of the Journal.

MEETING OF COUNCIL

A meeting of Council was held on Monday 13th October 1986. Present: Sir Peter Baldwin (in the Chair); Mr Peter Andry; Mrs Heather Brigstocke; Sir Adam Butler; Mr Philip Chappell; Lord Crathorne; Dame Diana Reader Harris; Dr Anne Hogg; Sir Ian Hunter; Mr Kenneth Joyner; Mr R. M. L. Lemon; Mr William Marrow; Sir Peter Masefield; Mr Stephen O'Brien; Sir Austin Pearce; Baroness Platt; Sir Charles Pringle; Sir Kenneth Robinson; Canon George Tolley; Professor John Tomlinson, and Mr Christopher Weston; with Mr Christopher Lucas (Secretary), Mr Martin Cross (Examinations Director), Mr John Shaw (Financial Controller) and Mr Timothy Cantell (Deputy Secretary).
